

I look forward to the day the national "do not call list" is established.